Investigation 4: Looking for Change

Read this story with your child. Then have him or her draw a picture of Harry in his new clothes.

Harry was always wearing the wrong clothes. When he put on his raincoat, it was warm and sunny outside. When he wore his shorts, the outside temperature was cold. When he decided not to take a jacket with him to school, the wind blew hard.

So Harry decided he wasn't going to go outside. Soon Harry became very, very lonely. All of his friends wanted to play outside. Harry was left alone, wearing the wrong clothes for the weather.

Then Harry got a grand idea! He would design a set of clothes that he could wear outside at any time and in any weather. If it were sunny and warm, Harry could wear his new clothes. If it were windy and rainy, Harry could wear his new clothes. Even if it were snowing, Harry could wear his new clothes!

So Harry set about designing his new wardrobe.

Finish the story and draw a picture of Harry's all-weather wardrobe. Use the back side of this page.

- What kind of clothing would Harry need?
- What kinds of weather would Harry need to think about?
- How can Harry wear the same thing in all kinds of weather?
